Re: RMR Group, Rocky Mountain Rustics and Chad Rothacher

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to recommend Chad and RMR for any construction projects you may be considering. We had the pleasure of contracting with Chad Rothacher and RMR group to build our new home. The entire process was made so easy and enjoyable because of Chad's high level of service, detail and knowledge. Chad has a very good eye for detail and design which added a very important part to the process that was very helpful. Chad and RMR are extremely good communicators as well as very organized which in turn made the project run smooth. Chad is always watching the bottom line, saved us money along the way and there were no surprises. Our house was delivered to us perfect; on time, on budget and exceeded our expectations on quality. Our house is truly perfect.

I would recommend Chad for any construction project or remodel you may be considering. I would be happy to discuss in greater detail with anyone our satisfaction. Please feel free to contact us for additional information.

Very truly yours,

Mike and Karen Basile
